

Acorn Innaugural Bear Open Field Shoot
28th July MXXXIV

The weather was outstanding at Acorn Archers' second open shoot in Mavis Enderby, deep in the Lincolnshire Wolds. It was superb to meet those who travelled from far afield and locally to experience shooting a thought-provoking course.

Our revenant zombie, Rodney, and his piked compatriot Grendel rose to the occasion and vexed the archers from afar.

The shoot was greatly received by all who dared to tread the wildwood and pit themselves against the mind of the course layer. Just a few of the comments received included "I thoroughly enjoyed it and I will come again", "it's a lovely wood" and "difficult side of testing".

We hope to welcome many more archers to our next shoot, which will be held on Sunday 25th August.

Not to be missed, otherwise...
