

The Wessex Week - 29 July to 6 August 2023

Well what a Week we had (well 8 days of shooting actually), from day to day we went through Autumn, Winter and, oh yes, a little bit of Summer. Luckily we didn't have much rain each day, except for the last Saturday at Druids and immediately after the Presentations finished on Sunday at Druids - well timed and a clever way of clearing the car park quickly!

A few statistics – 146 shot over the 8 days; 79 shot all 8 days; an average of 101 shot each day, varying from 93 to 112. And for good measure a total of 319,121 points scored and 1,395 spots!

The four Clubs, Westcombe & Osprey the first half of the week and Ballands & Druids in the second half, did a brilliant job with their Course setting, Marshalling, Catering & Admin. There has been fulsome praise for them by many entrants on the TWW Fb page and in emails. My sincere thanks to everyone at all four Clubs who pitched in and made it work, you were all brilliant. And special thanks to all the Admins for supplying me with results or allowing me to sit nearby and grab the second scorecard as soon as they were checked. I managed to get results posted each evening, albeit I injected a few errors here and there – but I was soon made aware – fair enough!

My sincere thanks also to those people who gave considerable help along the way – Tim Woolcott for Trophy research and ordering plus graphics design; Nick Hawken for Patch design, Shauna Innell for keeping an eye on the finances and necessary assistance with the final results and Andy Shelton for managing the Fb page for me. My gratitude is also extended to my two regular shoot buddies, Mike List & Patrick Hutchinson, who not only put up with my daft ideas and even encouraged me, but also acted as my two Lords Paramount (aka Binge & Crackit).

Well the dust is now settling, but there is already interest in 2024. No, not me (if I was younger and fitter maybe; but that is unlikely!). However, there is a possibility of something a little further North.

Congratulations to all the Medal winners, the Class Champions for the Week and to the overall Senior Champion, Ian Watkins, and Junior Champion, James Allsopp, Well Done.

Finally, without all of you who shot, either for the whole week or part of it, it wouldn't have worked, so THANK YOU and see you somewhere in late July / early August next year.

Best wishes,

Alan
